One of the Top 100 Things to do for the Summer

I am sure we can generate some lively debate on getting a consensus on the top 100 fun things to do for the summer but without question, volunteering of your time has to be included in the list. The giving back to the community is a special opportunity that brings instant gratification and the knowledge that for a moment you made another individual's life easier. It is a fine example of God's love in action. Our band of spiritual warriors made the trip to SOME on July 25th and in the end, our work impacted close to 400 people in a positive way.

We want to thank Margaret Boles, Seth Doherty, Manny, Roima, and Ingrid Lim and Kristina Deignan ("oops, is this the men's bathroom"). We appreciated your energy, enthusiasm and friendship.

We want to give our sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Knights of Columbus who continues to amaze us and the SOME staff with their donations of donuts. As always, we want to thank the parishioners who donated food items. Your generosity makes it possible for us to serve a healthy breakfast to needy men and women. We could not do what we do without your support.

Our friend George Takacs has a great idea for a fun outing for the group. George now drives a tour trolley and sometime this fall (Sat or Sun), he can rent the trolley. We would have to go someplace in DC but the destinations on our tour would be up to us and we can stop somewhere for a picnic. The limit would be 40 people. Let us know what you think.

Enjoy the rest of your summer

God Bless,
Andres & Terry

Quote of the Week

My will shall shape the future. Whether I fail or succeed shall be no man's doing but my own. I am the force; I can clear any obstacle before me or I can be lost in the maze. My choice; my responsibility; win or lose, only I hold the key to my destiny.
